

How can I say the name of classroom objects in Spanish?

Rights

Retrieval

Year 3 – Uno, dos, tres!

- Los colores

Key vocabulary

un estuche 	un lápiz 	un bolígrafo 	un rotulador
una goma 	un sacapuntas 	una regla 	un lápiz de color

el español Spanish	el inglés English	las ciencias science	las matemáticas maths	la música music
el deporte PE	la historia history	la geografía geography	la informática computing	el dibujo art

What are we learning?

Lesson 1:

To revise and retrieve my Spanish knowledge

Lesson 2:

To name classroom objects

Lesson 3:

To name classroom objects using an adjective

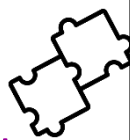

Lesson 4:

To identify the feminine and masculine nouns in the classroom

Lesson 5:

To design a game using Spanish classroom objects

Lesson 6:

To use a retrieval strategy to revise what we have learned

Key phrases

In Spanish, no is used to make a verb negative.

For example:

No tengo un cuaderno.
I don't have an exercise book.

Other key phrases:

¿qué es esto?
What is this?

¿tienes un/uno...?
Do you have a...?

por favor
please

gracias
thank you