

Year 3 Spelling lists - Autumn 2

Children will be taught spelling rules and patterns each week. Spellings set for homework are a combination of common exception words and topic related vocabulary alongside words to consolidate learning completed during that week. Children need to practise and learn these spellings at home. Children's recall of spellings will be checked through a weekly spelling dictation.

Week	Week 9	Week 10	Week 11	Week 12	Week 13	Week 14	Week 15
Pattern	'ed' suffix	'er' suffix	'tion' suffix	'tion' suffix	'ly' suffix	'ly' suffix	Suffix - various
	The suffix 'ed' added to a verb forms the past tense (wash/washed).	Verbs are 'doing' words or actions (run, skip, jump). Nouns are 'naming words' (boy, dog, chair). The suffix 'er' changes a verb into a noun (jump/jumper).	Adding 'tion' to a verb or adjective makes a noun: 'educate' (verb), 'education' (noun). The suffix 'tion' sounds like 'shun' and is far more common than the suffix 'sion'.	Adding 'tion' to a verb or adjective makes a noun: 'educate' (verb), 'education' (noun). The suffix 'tion' sounds like 'shun' and is far more common than the suffix 'sion'.	The suffix 'ly' means 'in this way'. It turns an adjective into an adverb. Adverbs help describe verbs (run quickly, shout loudly).	The suffix 'ly' means 'in this way'. It turns an adjective into an adverb. Adverbs help describe verbs (run quickly, shout loudly).	A suffix is a group of letters added to the end of a word. It can change the word meaning, and it can also change the word class. -ing, -ed, -ly and -tion are all suffixes
1	jumped	thinker	action	addition	neatly	gently	hopped
2	thumped	jumper	edition	position	blindly	simply	shunned
3	planned	planner	direction	condition	loudly	happily	slipper
4	stepped	stepper	education	subtraction	bravely	noisily	nicely
5	skipped	shopper	location	fraction	completely	luckily	logically
6	claimed	dreamer	motion	invention	politely	magically	eruption
7	feared	bowler	emotion	intention	rudely	ethically	creation
Common exception words
8	possessed	builder	mention	satisfaction	importantly	extremely	building
9	questioned	learner	question	attention	continually	particularly	satisfying
10	interested	islander	completion	consideration	accidentally	occasionally	probably
11	disappeared	straighter	regulation	opposition	certainly	recently	opposition
12	guarded	experimenter	description	continuation	naturally	regularly	appeared

*Challenge: What do you notice about this word? Think about the spelling patterns you have already been practicing.

Please look up the meaning of any words you don't understand and practise using these in sentences.