

To edit spellings including suffixes

Proofread the following paragraphs to find the six spelling errors. Underline the errors and use a dictionary to find the correct spellings. Then, write the correct spellings in the boxes on the left hand side.

It was a hot sunny day and Jack was trying to motiveate himself to help his mum decoreate his bedroom. He had been nagging his mum for months because he wanted to personallise his room but she kept saying, "These things don't just materiallise Jack, you have to put in some effort!"

Jack decided to activeate his arms enough to spread red paint onto one wall and white onto the other. After a while, he decided that decorating really wasn't that difficult and if he tried hard enough he could simpleify anything!