

Easter Through Art

To identify events, characters and emotions through art

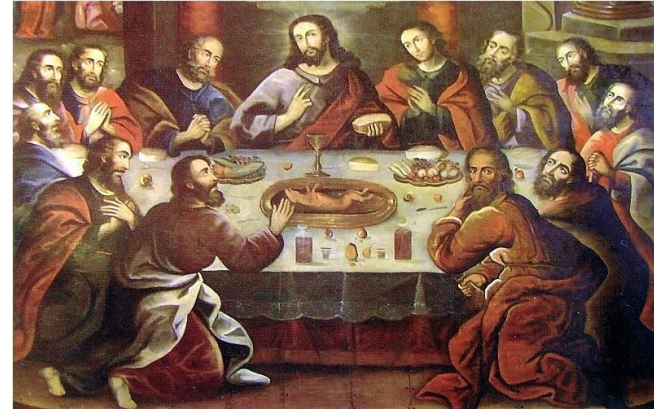

Many religious events are depicted through art. Can you identify which significant religious events are happening in each picture (clue: think about the time of year right now)? Can you describe the emotions of the people you see in the pictures and explain why they may be feeling this way?

1.

Explain which religious event you think these images are showing and how the characters are feeling...

2.

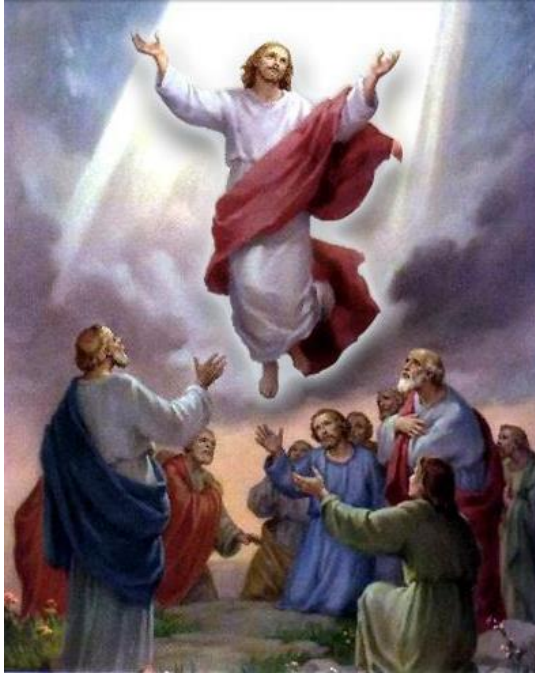

Explain which religious event you think these images are showing and how the characters are feeling...

3.

Explain which religious event you think these images are showing and how the characters are feeling...

4.

Explain which religious event you think these images are showing and how the characters are feeling...
