

Direct Teach times are when the children sit on the carpet as a whole class or work with an adult in small groups at their tables. This is whole class story time where we listen and share lovely stories.

