

Can you identify which past tense these sentences are written in? Don't forget to use these rules to help you:

simple past tense verb used only = past simple was/were + an 'ing' verb = past progressive had + past participle (past tense verb) = past perfect had been + 'ing' verb = past perfect progressive

We had taken the books home for the weekend. _____

I danced through the forest. _____

I was singing sweetly. _____

I had been walking for hours. _____

We were working very hard all day. _____

They cooked us a lovely dinner. _____

I was sleeping soundly in bed. _____

They had written a very long letter. _____

I pranced to the shops. _____

I had been running down the road when I fell over. _____

You were jumping all over the place. _____

He was crying his eyes out. _____

She had been smiling all day because she was happy. _____

We had been sitting on the bus for hours. _____

I climbed up the tall trees. _____

She was skipping happily in the playground. _____

I fell over and bruised my knee. _____

She had eaten all of the chocolate. _____